Rendition of Abu Omar

(March 6, 2007)

RELEASED IN FULL

Abu Omar

- In conducting renditions, this administration has respected and will continue to respect the sovereignty of other countries.
- The United States has not used the airspace or airports of any country for the purpose of transporting a detainee to a country where he will be tortured.
- The United States government complies with its Constitution, its laws and its treaty obligations. U.S. legislation codifies -- on a worldwide basis -- existing U.S. policy against cruel, inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment.
- The United States does not commit, authorize, or condone torture.
